

POLICE REPORT FOR COUNCIL MEETING 11/12/2012

HALLOWEEN:

We had a very quiet Halloween. There were no incidents and only one arrest which was unrelated to the Halloween activities.

PERSONNEL:

Officer Willard Pankey resigned on October 14th to accept a position in the private sector. He will be staying with us as a reserve officer. We all wish him well in his new career.

I am currently in the process of interviewing and doing background checks on several potential candidates. I am hoping to have the position filled within the next 2 weeks.

TRAFFIC ENFORCEMENT:

The officers are continuing to monitor the traffic on SH 146. Officer Harrison issued a citation to a motorist whom he checked on radar traveling at 103 miles per hour.
